ABOUT US

The Cove Creek Club is a friendly close knit community situated on 334 acres located on beautiful Kent Island on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

The private community consists of large home sites, with lush landscapes and beautiful views. The property is surrounded by the Chesapeake Bay and Tanners and Cove Creeks.

Natural beauty abounds along the bays, creeks, and marshes with bald eagles, osprey, herons, and migrating waterfowl visiting alongside deer, and other native wildlife.

Our diverse population of young families, working professionals, commuters, and retirees enjoys our numerous social and recreational activities and our easy going, laid back lifestyle.

OUTSTANDING LOCATION

The Cove Creek Club community is conveniently located to Annapolis, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C. but far enough to escape the hustle and bustle.

The local area provides a variety of shopping, family friendly activities and some of the finest dining on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The Chesapeake waters make our summers cooler and winters more pleasant than inland locations.

The Chesapeake Bay and the Eastern Shore of Maryland is your extended backyard - and right outside your door.
